Basic policies on remuneration for Directors (excluding Directors who are Audit and Supervisory Committee Members)

Remuneration for the Company's officers is calculated within the limit of remuneration approved at the General Meeting of Shareholders. The system enables the monitoring function of shareholders to work in this regard.

The upper limit of remuneration for Directors (excluding Audit and Supervisory Committee Members) was set at ¥450 million per year (including a portion for Outside Directors of up to ¥50 million per year) by resolution of the 40th Annual General Meeting of Shareholders held on November 19, 2020.

Meanwhile, the upper limit of remuneration in the form of share remuneration-type stock options for Directors (excluding Directors who are Audit and Supervisory Committee Members and Outside Directors) was set at ¥100 million per year, which is in addition to the aforementioned remuneration, etc. per resolution of the 41st Annual General Meeting of Shareholders held on November 19, 2021. However, at the 44th Annual General Meeting of Shareholders held on November 21, 2024, it was resolved to abolish the share remuneration-type stock options, and to set the maximum amount of remuneration for the grant of shares with transfer restrictions ("restricted shares") to Directors (excluding Directors who are Audit and Supervisory Committee Members and Outside Directors) at ¥100 million per year, and the maximum number of restricted shares to be allotted within one year from the date of the Annual General Meeting of Shareholders for each fiscal year at 80,000 shares, in addition to the aforementioned remuneration, etc.

The officers who are eligible for payment of remuneration, etc. in accordance these payment limits are 8 Directors (excluding Audit and Supervisory Committee Members, including 4 Outside Directors) and 4 Directors who are Audit and Supervisory Committee Members.

The Board of Directors adopted a basic policy on the individual remuneration for Directors (excluding Directors who are Audit and Supervisory Committee Members. The amounts of remuneration, etc. for Directors who are Audit and Supervisory Committee Members are determined through discussions involving Directors who are Audit and Supervisory Committee Members, considering factors that include full-time or part-time status, inside or outside Director status, and duties assigned. Directors who are Audit and Supervisory Committee Members receive basic remuneration only, given their roles in auditing Directors in their execution of duties from an objective standpoint.

Each fiscal year, financial results targets are established with reference to consolidated and non-consolidated net sales, operating profit, ordinary profit, and profit (profit attributable to owners of parent on a consolidated basis), and when the financial results targets are achieved, the allocation will be executed, with the payment period determined by the Board of Directors. Furthermore, the lifting of transfer restrictions shall be limited to the time that the Directors leave office.

Moreover, where the Board of Directors deems that the actions of a recipient of restricted share remuneration violate laws and regulations or the Company's internal rules, etc., violate the items established in the restricted shares allocation agreement associated with restricted share remuneration, damage the Company's good name, cause significant damage to the Company, or where a recipient of restricted shares remuneration assumes the position of an officer, employee, or advisor, etc. at a competitor without prior written notification to the Company, the Company shall acquire the accumulated restricted shares of the Director in question without contribution.

Policy for Determining Remuneration Amounts or Calculation Methods Thereof [Update]	Established
---	-------------

Disclosure of Policy for Determining Remuneration Amounts or Calculation Methods Thereof

Remuneration for the Company's officers is calculated within the limit of remuneration approved at the General Meeting of Shareholders. The system enables the monitoring function of shareholders to work in this regard.

The upper limit of remuneration for Directors (excluding Audit and Supervisory Committee Members) was set at ¥450 million per year (including a portion for Outside Directors of up to ¥50 million per year) by resolution of the 40th Annual General Meeting of Shareholders held on November 19, 2020.

Meanwhile, the upper limit of remuneration in the form of share remuneration-type stock options for Directors (excluding Directors who are Audit and Supervisory Committee Members and Outside Directors) was set at ¥100 million per year, which is in addition to the aforementioned remuneration, etc. per resolution of the 41st Annual General Meeting of Shareholders held on November 19, 2021. However, at the 44th Annual General Meeting of Shareholders held on November 21, 2024, it was resolved to abolish the share remuneration-type stock options, and to set the maximum amount of remuneration for the grant of shares with transfer restrictions ("restricted shares") to Directors (excluding Directors who are Audit and Supervisory Committee Members and Outside Directors) at ¥100 million per year, and the maximum number of restricted shares to be allotted within one year from the date of the Annual General Meeting of Shareholders for each fiscal year at 80,000 shares, in addition to the aforementioned remuneration, etc.

The upper limit of remuneration for Directors who are Audit and Supervisory Committee Members was set at ¥80 million per year by resolution of the 40th Annual General Meeting of Shareholders held on November 19, 2020.

The officers who are eligible for payment of remuneration, etc. in accordance with these payment limits are 8 Directors (excluding Audit and Supervisory Committee Members, including 4 Outside Directors) and 4 Directors who are Audit and Supervisory Committee Members.

The Board of Directors adopted a basic policy on the individual remuneration for Directors (excluding Directors who are Audit and Supervisory Committee Members. Hereinafter, "Directors") by resolution of the meeting of the Board of Directors held on February 26, 2021, and revised it at the meeting of the Board of Directors held on October 20, 2025.

Furthermore, regarding the individual remuneration, etc. for Directors in the current fiscal year, the Board of Directors has confirmed that the method of determining the remuneration, etc. and the details of the determined remuneration, etc. are consistent with this policy for determining remuneration, etc., confirmed that the report from the Compensation Committee has been respected, and deemed that the individual remuneration, etc. are in line with this policy.

The remuneration system for Directors of the Company aims to provide incentives for each Director to enhance corporate value continuously and to promote the further sharing of value with our shareholders. When determining the individual remuneration for Directors, the basic policy is to set appropriate levels based on their positions and work responsibilities.

Specifically, remuneration for Directors is composed of 1) “Basic remuneration” paid as cash based on the roles of individual Directors, 2) “Performance-linked remuneration, etc.” paid as cash based on the achievement of financial results and individual missions as a short-term incentive, and 3) “Restricted share-based remuneration” as a medium- to long-term incentive.

Considering their role in providing oversight and suggestions for the management of the Company and the overall of the Group from an objective standpoint, only basic remuneration is paid as remuneration to Outside Directors (excluding Directors who are Audit and Supervisory Committee Members).

The amounts of remuneration, etc. for Directors who are Audit and Supervisory Committee Members are determined through discussions involving Directors who are Audit and Supervisory Committee Members, considering factors that include full-time or part-time status, inside or outside Director status, and duties assigned. Directors who are Audit and Supervisory Committee Members receive basic remuneration only, given their roles in auditing Directors in their execution of duties from an objective standpoint.

Furthermore, from the perspective of committing to medium- to long-term financial results, the Company has established as system through which Directors (including Directors who are Audit and Supervisory Committee Members) contribute a certain amount of their monthly remuneration to the Company’s Officer Shareholder Association to acquire the Company’s shares, which they continuously hold throughout their terms in office.

As for procedures for determining remuneration, decisions on remuneration amounts for each Director are made by resolution of the Board of Directors upon review undertaken by the Compensation Committee, established voluntarily and chaired by an Outside Director (excluding Directors who are Audit and Supervisory Committee Members).

Moreover, the Compensation Committee, at request of the Board of Directors, deliberates on the reasonableness of the remuneration system and reports such results to the Board of Directors.

The Compensation Committee is chaired by an Outside Director (excluding Directors who are Audit and Supervisory Committee Members) and a majority of its members consist of Outside Directors (excluding Directors who are Audit and Supervisory Committee Members), thereby enhancing its objectivity and transparency.

The details of the policy for determining for individual remuneration, etc. for Directors are as follows.

(1) Policy to determine the amounts of individual remuneration, etc. for basic remuneration (cash remuneration, includes policy related to the period and conditions in which remuneration, etc. is paid).

Basic remuneration for Directors and Outside Directors (excluding Directors who are Audit and Supervisory Committee Members) is remuneration that is paid monthly in an amount decided ahead of time within the scope of a standard amount considering factors including the positions and work responsibilities of individual Directors, the Company’s financial results, and market levels.

Basic remuneration for Directors who are Audit and Supervisory Committee Members shall be determined individually through discussions involving Directors who are Audit and Supervisory Committee Members, considering factors that include their individual roles, expertise, and experience, in line with their work responsibilities, and is paid as monthly remuneration.

(2) Policy to determine the details of the financial results indicators associated with performance-linked remuneration, etc.

The financial results indicators associated with the performance-linked remuneration, etc. for Directors (excluding Directors who are Audit and Supervisory Committee Members) consist of financial indicators and non-financial indicators.

In terms of financial indicator-linked remuneration, because increasing profitability is important in continuously increasing corporate value, the indicators are consolidated and non-consolidated net sales, operating profit, ordinary profit, and profit (profit attributable to owners of parent on a consolidated basis).

In terms of non-financial indicator-linked remuneration, the indicators are company-determined environmental management indicators and work engagement indicators, and they are evaluated based on the status of improvement each year.

Financial results indicators are reviewed based on changes in the management environment and reports from the Compensation Committee.

(3) Policy to determine the amounts of performance-linked remuneration, etc. (includes policy related to the period and conditions in which remuneration, etc. is paid).

Performance-linked remuneration, etc. paid as cash to Directors (excluding Directors who are Audit and Supervisory Committee Members) is paid as monthly remuneration during the Directors’ terms of office and is calculated in individual amounts based on an evaluation of the Company’s and the individual’s financial results following the conclusion of the fiscal year, considering the state of achievement of financial results indicators in each fiscal year.

(4) Policy to determine the details and number of restricted share-based remuneration (includes policy related to the period and conditions in which remuneration, etc. is paid).

Restricted share-based remuneration paid to Directors (excluding Directors who are Audit and Supervisory Committee Members) is a share remuneration system aimed at continuously increasing corporate value, and the number of restricted shares allotted is determined by a resolution of the Board of Directors.

Each fiscal year, financial results targets are established with reference to consolidated and non-consolidated net sales, operating profit, ordinary profit, and profit (profit attributable to owners of parent on a consolidated basis), and when the financial results targets are achieved, the allocation will be executed, with the payment period determined by the Board of Directors. Furthermore, the lifting of transfer restrictions shall be limited to the time that the Directors leave office.

Moreover, where the Board of Directors deems that the actions of a recipient of restricted share remuneration violate laws and regulations or the Company's internal rules, etc., violate the items established in the restricted shares allocation agreement associated with restricted share remuneration, damage the Company's good name, cause significant damage to the Company, or where a recipient of restricted shares remuneration assumes the position of an officer, employee, or advisor, etc. at a competitor without prior written notification to the Company, the Company shall acquire the accumulated restricted shares of the Director in question without contribution.

(5) Items related the policy for determining on the details of individual remuneration, etc. for Directors

Specific decisions on the details of individual remuneration, etc. for Directors (excluding Directors who are Audit and Supervisory Committee Members) are delegated to the President and Representative Director based on a resolution of the Board of Directors.

The contents of the authority delegated to the President and Representative Director include decisions on the amounts of basic remuneration, for individual Directors within the scope of the maximum amount, etc. determined by a resolution of the General Meeting of Shareholders, the amounts of performance-linked remuneration, etc., and the number of restricted shares allotted.

Furthermore, so that the authority delegated to the President and Representative Director are exercised appropriately, the Board of Directors shall establish a Compensation Committee as an advisory body to the Board of Directors, and when the President and Representative Director determines the details of individual remuneration, etc. for Directors based on the above delegation of authority, the President and Representative Director shall receive a report from the Compensation Committee ahead of time and respect to the fullest extent the details of the report as a condition of the above delegation of authority.

Regarding basic compensation for Directors who are Audit and Supervisory Members, the amounts of individual remuneration shall be determined through discussions involving Directors who are Audit and Supervisory Board members within the scope of the maximum amount determined by a resolution of the General Meeting of Shareholders.

(6) Policy to determine the proportion of the amounts of basic compensation, performance-linked remuneration, etc. and the number of restricted shares allotted

The levels of remuneration for Directors (excluding Directors who are Audit and Supervisory Committee Members), the proportion of the amounts of basic remuneration, performance-linked remuneration, etc. and the number of restricted shares allotted are determined referencing companies, etc. with a similar business scale as the Company. Specifically, cash remuneration is composed of 50% basic remuneration and 50% performance-linked remuneration, etc. and restricted share-based remuneration is allotted when financial results targets are achieved, as described in (4) above.

The Representative Director, delegated by Directors, shall respect the contents of reports from the Compensation Committee and determine the details of remuneration, etc. for each of the Directors (excluding Directors who are Audit and Supervisory Committee Members) within the scope of the remuneration proportions proposed in the Compensation Committee's reports.

Furthermore, regarding the details of individual remuneration, etc. for Directors, because the President and Representative Director oversees all operations of the Company, specific decisions have been delegated to him/her based on a resolution of the Board of Directors. The contents of the authority delegated include decisions on the amounts of basic remuneration for individual Directors within the scope of the maximum amount, etc. determined by a resolution of the General Meeting of Shareholders, the amounts of performance-linked remuneration, etc., and the number of restricted shares allotted.

Furthermore, so that the authority delegated to the President and Representative Director are exercised appropriately, the Board of Directors shall establish a Compensation Committee as an advisory body to the Board of Directors, and when the President and Representative Director determines the details of individual remuneration, etc. for Directors (excluding Audit and Supervisory Committee Members and Outside Directors) based on the above delegation of authority, the President and Representative Director shall receive a report from the Compensation Committee ahead of time and respect to the fullest extent the details of the report as a condition of the above delegation of authority.
